Buddhist Church of Florin

June 2018

Volume 6, Issue 1

Seeing the sentient beings of the nembutsu throughout the worlds, countless as particles, in the ten quarters, the Buddha grasps and never abandons them and therefore is named, “Amida.”¹

The first weekend of May marked another successful food bazaar at the Buddhist Church of Florin. I cannot express my gratitude enough to our bazaar committee, Ann Tsukamoto and Norma Nakata, in addition to the chairs of each group and all of the countless volunteers who helped make this bazaar another fruitful fundraiser for the temple.

That weekend I was recruited by Lois Kashiwase to assist with the rolling of makizushi. Although I worried about my abilities to prepare and roll the sushi correctly and beautifully, I was happy to help since it was a task that made me feel even more included in my new Sangha. With Mrs. Myrna Hitomi’s encouragement, I even prepared a few ohagi, which was also very fun to do.

Since I was a beginner at rolling makizushi, my station was set up next to Lois. She instructed me to lay the piece of nori down and then cover most of it with the seasoned rice. “Don’t squish too hard,” Lois said as she showed me how to spread the rice out evenly over the sheet of nori. Then we placed the shiitake mushrooms in a row, followed by the kanpyo, celery, and egg with a sprinkling of dried shrimp. Then came the rolling, which seemed like the most nerve-wracking part. I wanted to make sure that I rolled it tight enough to keep everything from falling out, but I also wanted to make sure that I did not squish it into one big blob of rice.

I must have been hungry while rolling the makizushi because I kept thinking about how much I like shiitake mushrooms. However, every ingredient in the roll looked really appetizing. Each of the ingredients are well seasoned or have their own particular taste and texture, which pairs well with the other elements of the roll. Because of this artfully delicious pairing, makizushi is not only pretty when served, but also very tasty.

Makizushi can be very symbolic of our Sangha and Buddhism. Each of us brings our own experiences, views, and personalities to our temple, which makes us unique and special individuals. This is similar to the various flavors and ingredients of the makizushi. The large amount of tiny grains of rice that it takes to make one roll is unknown, but must be acknowledged and appreciated. This is likened to the countless conditions of our lives, seen and unseen, that allow us to be alive in this present moment. In addition, the nori that binds and holds everything together in makizushi represents the Buddha’s teachings. Nori is like the grasp and embrace of Amida Buddha’s wisdom and compassion for all of us.

Although we all have different qualities that make us individuals, we must also acknowledge the interdependence of all lives to live harmoniously together and the Buddha-Dharma that binds us.

In Gassho,
Rev. Candice Shibata

A huge thank you to all of you who helped out with our annual Spring food bazaar. It was a success. THANK YOU!

Senior Lunch Program

Next Lunch: September 11

The Senior Lunch Program headed by Iron Chef Lloyd Okimura completed its 10th year on May 8 with tamale prepared by Mary Inouye and her tamale helpers Terry Kagiya, Alice Kataoka, Emi Watanabe, and steamer and pot scrubber Harry Inouye. Diners also enjoyed Spanish rice, beans, taco salad and dessert of chocolate cake! Yummy! Everything was delicious! What a delicious way to end the year!

Since some of the helpers are going on a trip to Japan beginning on June 12th, it was decided that the lunch in May was a fitting time to end the year. BUT don't forget the 11th year of the senior lunch program will begin in September -- September 11 to be exact with something delicious that Chef Lloyd will prepare.

Thank you to all the dedicated helpers: Janet Sonoda for her wonderful desserts and salads, Janet Kuroda, Treasurer, Diane Nakao for shopping and preparing salads and more, Tomio and Shirley Ito for all the decorations, music and photographs they provide every month, and George Miyao and Tomio for providing bottled water, Judy Shimizu and Sharon Yamamoto for conducting the raffle, Gary Okamoto, Dave Wakabayashi, Dean Okasaki, Donna Kunisaki, Jan Takeuchi, Mike Kakutani, Ben Kusaka, Harvey Kadoya, Diane Muranaka, Jean Okamoto, Myrna Hitomi, Eric Fujii (sous chef), Ron Okimura, Lois Kashiwase, Peggy Okabayashi, Alice Okimura, Craig Shijo, Debbie Yamamoto, Jeanne Nakamura, JoAnn Kusaka, and Sandy Okuno. A BIG THANK you to all without whom we could not continue the senior lunch program.

We are looking forward to the eleventh year beginning in September after a well-deserved rest. As Lloyd said, HE'S TIRED! Thank you all for your dedicated service, especially Lloyd!!!

LOTUS Club

We owe a debt of gratitude to the men and women who continue the LOTUS Club headed by Gary Okamoto and Ron Shimizu. Established in 2012 by Gary, the Club continues to flourish with sustenance provided by the women who provide lunches for them. Thanks to LOTUS Club members the church grounds remain beautiful for all to enjoy! The bodhi tree located in the Heisei Garden has survived after several winters and has become full and lush (the tree is still adorned with Xmas tree lights to keep it warm during cold winters). The trees and bushes are kept neatly trimmed and the parking lot kept clean by Gary who uses the leaf blower to keep it that way. He refuses to wear a mask but he does use ear muffs (protector? Don't know what they're called). The men help Lloyd Okimura with maintenance of the church facility as well. Thank you to Lloyd, Gary, Ron, Mike Kakutani, Ben Kusaka, Jan Takeuchi, Harvey Kadoya, George Miyao who go over and beyond expectations to keep the Church beautiful. AND thank you to Tomio Ito who toils in the TGarden that provides fresh vegetables for our lunches. We are looking forward to the daikon he planted to make takuan. Also, Tomio very quietly purchased paper towel holders and a toaster for the kitchen. Thanks Tomio. Thank you to the women who come every Thursday to prepare lunches. They are Myrna Hitomi, Jean Okamoto, Judy Shimizu, and JoAnn Kusaka.

LOTUS Club Volunteers Needed

The Florin Buddhist Church's LOTUS Club is a group of retired members and friends who do church yard maintenance every Thursday morning from 8 AM to Noon. At noon, the LOTUS Club ladies cook and serve delicious lunch meals.

In 2012, the Florin Buddhist Church's Board of Directors eliminated the church's paid commercial gardener to save money in the Church's budget. The LOTUS Club was established with the responsibility of maintaining the churchyard...mow the lawn, weed, prune trees and shrubs, and other yard maintenance duties as required.

The average age of the LOTUS Club volunteers are 73 years old and getting older. Young retirees are needed to continue the work of the LOTUS Club.

Practice DANA (selfless giving) and experience the impermanence of nature as the flowers, plants and trees change during the four seasons.

YOUNG RETIREES, PLEASE COME AND HELP ON THURSDAY MORNINGS.

Note: The LOTUS Club can provide work projects for those High School students needing Community Service work during the Summer.

BWA 100th Anniversary Renovation Project Fundraiser

John Marshall Textile Exhibit & Sale

Planning BWA President Judie Miyao & John Marshall first discussed the possibility of a fundraising trunk show one year ago. At that time John offered to donate 100 percent of his proceeds to the Anniversary Renovation Project.

John was born and raised in the Florin area and learned to write and speak Japanese at the Florin Language School. When he was 17, he moved to Japan where he has spent his life researching and sharing traditional Japanese textiles and techniques. He is now internationally known for his art. This event at Florin on April 21, 2018, was his way of thanking the Florin Japanese community. It included the sale of garments and textiles from Japan. Items for sale included bolts of Japanese silks and cottons, traditional formal and casual clothing, and a wide array of obi & other kimono accessories.

garments worn by Emperor Meiji.

There was a story presentation of the Grateful Crane teaching about the importance of compassion and reaching out to help those in need. The second presentation included a collection of

In addition to sale proceeds, John generously donated several items from the floor used for the raffle drawings. Lois Tanaka was the grand prize winner of a beautiful kimono.

Arigato - Again, it took “a village” of many individuals & other church affiliates to have this successful event. On the day previous to the event, many of the LOTUS men hung numerous banners & helped with table setup, LOTUS women prepped for the bento lunch and BWA women assisted with unpacking and displaying of hundreds of Japanese-related sale items. On the day of the event Ben Kusaka’s crew was out at 6 a.m. barbecuing the chicken and a kitchen-full of BWA women prepared the bento lunch which was sold during the event, donated boutique items, and helped on the floor.

This function netted almost $3,500. Other donors who participated and donated to the project included Dharma School, YABA (snack bar), & Norma’s Cards, which generated a grand total of nearly $3,700 for the 100th Anniversary Renovation Project.
